

Week 15

Australia: History - Colonization

extraordinary

(page 272)

adjective

very unusual or remarkable

transition

(page 272)

noun

the process or a period of changing from one state or condition to another

institution

(page 272)

noun

an established law, practice, or custom virtually

(page 275)

adverb

nearly; almost

disgrace

(page 276)

noun

loss of reputation or respect, esp. as the result of a dishonorable action

Questions

Do you have any questions from your reading assignment?

Australia

(unit 17)

Important Topics

Unit Seventeen – History

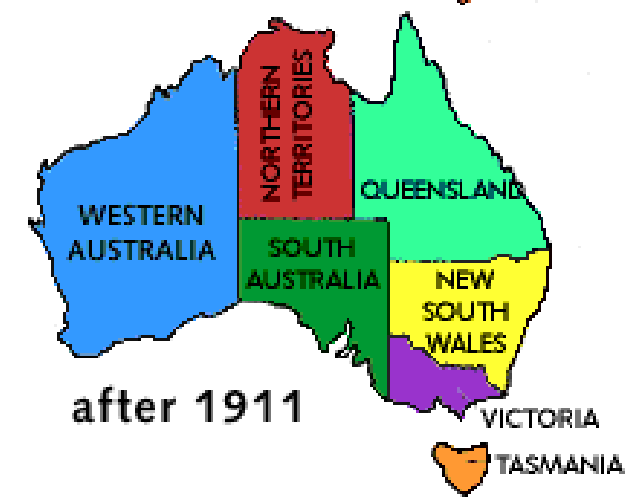

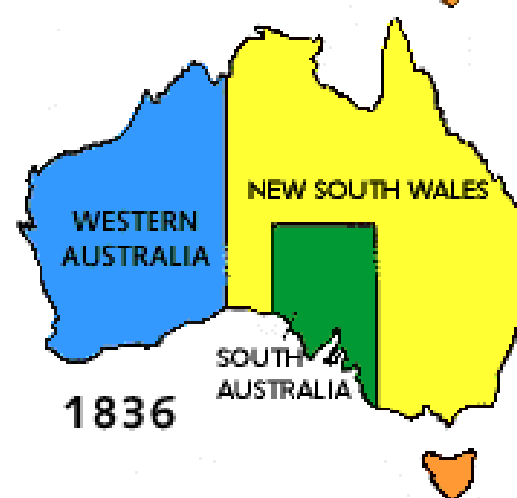

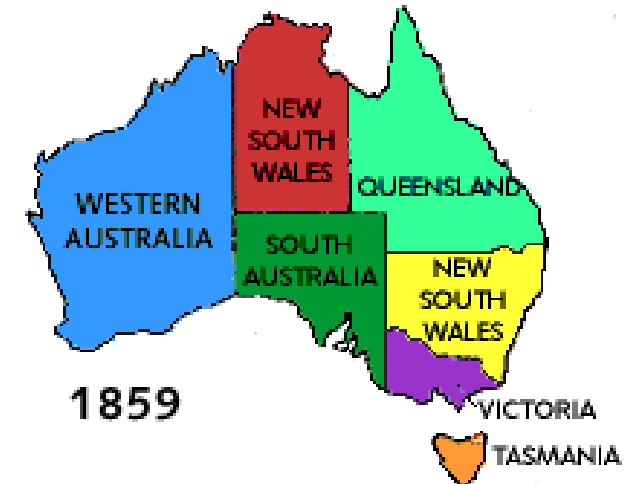

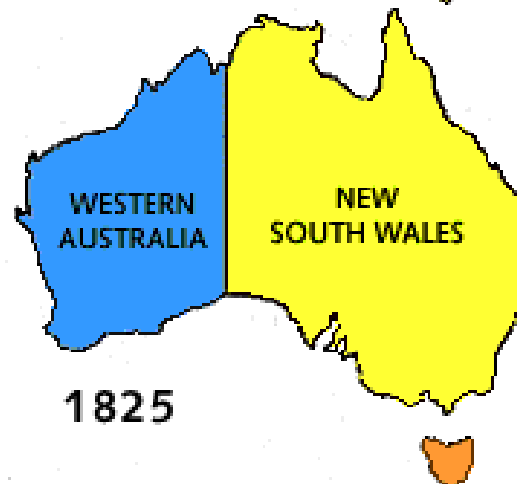

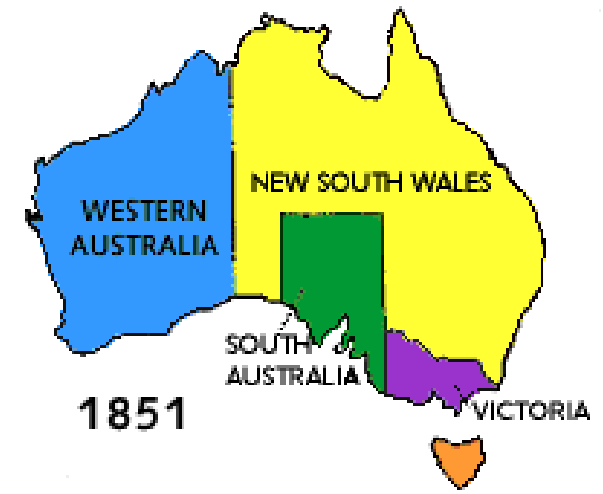

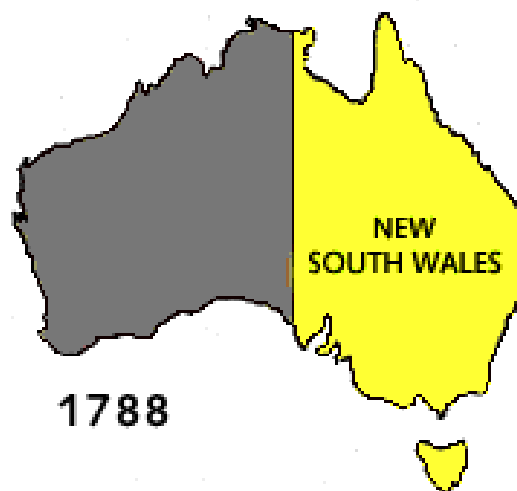

- Colonization
 - free
 - un-free (penal)
- Family life
 - Marriage
 - Children
- Convict Laborers & Workers
- Emancipists
- Convict Transportation
- Free Migration
- Gold Rush 1850's
- Wakefield Scheme
 - Edward Gibbon Wakefield

Establishing Australian Colonies 1788-1911

Australia was not claimed at one single point in time, but rather, in a series of steps.

Important Topics

Unit Seventeen – History

- Colonization
 - free
 - un-free (penal)
- Family life
 - Marriage
 - Children
- Convict Laborers & Workers
- Emancipists
- Convict Transportation
- Free Migration
- Gold Rush 1850's
- Wakefield Scheme
 - Edward Gibbon Wakefield

“Currency Children”

They were called the “Currency Children” because their habit of demanding payment in cash (currency) for their work.

Lady Macquarie's Chair,
Sydney in the 1820 and 30's

Important Topics

Unit Seventeen – History

- Colonization
 - free
 - un-free (penal)
- Family life
 - Marriage
 - Children
- Convict Laborers & Workers
- Emancipists
- Convict Transportation
- Free Migration
- Gold Rush 1850's
- Wakefield Scheme
 - Edward Gibbon Wakefield

Edward Gibbon Wakefield

1796 - 1862

